

Funeral Director

How many careers value compassion the same way they do knowledge and expertise? We do things differently at Arbor Memorial. Here, we focus on caring for others, on empathy, and on celebrating people in personalized ways. You'll have our support as you serve families based on what matters most, every single day. You'll gain valuable experience to advance in a worthwhile and rewarding career path, surrounded by kind colleagues and accessible leaders.

Working with Arbor means more than a competitive compensation package. We are invested in a culture of learning throughout our business and dedicated to providing health and wellness resources for all employees and their families. We also provide a robust pension plan to support your long-term financial planning and stability.

About this role:

As a Funeral Director at Park Funeral Home you will have the opportunity to provide meaningful support to families on their end-of-life journey by overseeing and directing all aspects of funeral services, including: filing death certificates, maintaining online obituary listings, performing decedent embalming and providing assistance during the execution of funeral services.

About This Location:

Park Funeral Home was established in 1928 and have a long legacy in the city of Saskatoon. We have the distinct honor and privilege of serving more than 220 families annually from throughout the Saskatoon area. There are endless advantages to living in Saskatchewan's largest city. Saskatoon has the lowest tax rates in the country and more days of sunshine than any other major Canadian city. Saskatoon is an outdoor paradise with a number of activities including hiking, skiing, snowboarding, skating, cycling or walking and sightseeing in your own backyard.

Your opportunity for personal growth as a Funeral Director and as a leader in the funeral profession awaits you here at Arbor Memorial and Park Funeral Home.
